Journalist Valentina Quintero was born on the 28th of June, 1954, in Caracas, Venezuela.

She graduated in Social Communication at the Universidad Católica Andrés Bello and in Educational Technology at the University of Boston.

Valentina Quintero has worked passionately to show Venezuelans every corner of their country, writing and presenting TV programmes about tourism and environmental issues. On her website, you can find her Travel Guide to Venezuela. It's the result of 20 years of travelling her country. It's amazing!

In 2018 she appeared on the BBC list of the 100 most inspiring and influential women from around the world. When she learned about this acknowledgment she said she was very happy because in this way she can share Venezuela with the world, continue protecting the environment and also encourage a sense of belonging among Venezuelans.
