

Coeducación Escuelas Oficiales de Idiomas

Proyecto Blog "Desarrollando inteligencia feminista" de la EOI Fuengirola

<https://coeducacioninteligenciafeminista.wordpress.com/>

Trabajos del curso presentados en la I Semana Cultural Feminista 2019 "Mujeres que transforman el mundo"

Taller: "Mujeres que transforman el mundo I"

Estudiante: Naima. Nivel Básico (1ºC)

Profesora: MF

Course 2018-19 Classroom Exercises: Orals learned by ear by heart.

After the Feminist Cultural Week we will read out the written texts in class, to learn more!

Photo Credit: Wikipedia. Public domain. Hadizatou Mani when she visited Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and First Lady Michelle Obama in 2009.

Source: Wikipedia

Hadizatou Mani, Nigerien Slavery Survivor & Human Rights Activist

Hadizatou Mani was born in 1984. She is a human rights activist from Niger.

In Niger slavery is illegal since 2003 but it still happens! She was sold for 500 dollars. She was raped by her "master" and she had three children. He said she was his wife!

Hadizatou Mani escaped and she married a man she loved. Her former "master" accused her of bigamy, so she was sent to jail for six months. She decided to go to court, and she won her case! She was given $20,000 in damages.

In 2009 she was honored with the International Women of Courage Award and she was on Time Magazine's list of the 100 most influential people in the world!

